

LA PERGOLETTA

Where and when:

It's in Pisa and although it's open every day except Monday our recommendation is that this is a great Sunday afternoon selection.

Get there close to 12.30 when it opens and watch the place fill with the beautiful and best of Pisa.

This is one of "those places" just special because it is!
Via delle Belle Torri 40, 56100, Pisa

There are three dining areas which gives the restaurant its charm make sure to book and request a table in any of the inner rooms - they fill up first. Get Le Sodole reception to do this for you.

Final tip look out when parking - on street is fine but around the restaurant are some controlled zones so take care.
